Representative(s) at the International Tourism and Travel Show 2016:

- Kimberly Hartley, Canadian Account Manager

About the Organization:

The Myrtle Beach area, also known as the Grand Strand, is located on the southeast coast of the United States in sunny South Carolina. As one of the premier family and beach vacation destinations in the United States, Myrtle Beach offers an endless array of lodging options including resorts, hotels, condo resorts, beach homes, vacation rentals and campgrounds. Home to world-class golf, 100km of white sand beaches, exciting entertainment, soft adventure, Arts and Culture, Carolina Coastal Cuisine, family attractions and Southern hospitality, the Myrtle Beach area offers the quintessential vacation or corporate experience for families, couples of all ages, and business travellers.
