New Requirements, Tougher Penalties

- The Census Bureau now requires mandatory filing of export information through the Automated Export System (AES) or through the AES*Direct* for all shipments where a Shipper's Export Declaration was previously required.
- Penalties may be imposed per violation of the FTR from $1,100 to $10,000 – both civil and criminal – for the delayed filing, failure to file, false filing of export information, and/or using the AES to further any illegal activity.

Agenda

● Day 1 – Seminar – June 16, 2009

The Census Bureau Foreign Trade Division offers an engaging full day of learning. The Census Bureau experts will cover the filing requirements of the FTR, how to classify your commodities by providing an understanding of the Schedule B classification requirements, as well as provide a thorough overview of the AES. The seminar is scheduled from 7:30 am – 5:00 pm and continental breakfast and lunch are provided.

● Day 2 – Workshop – June 17, 2009

Get certified training on AES*PcLink*! Learn how to successfully file your Electronic Export Information (EEI) via the Windows-based desktop PC component, AES*PcLink*. The workshop is scheduled from 8:30 am -12:00 pm and continental breakfast is provided.
