

2008 National District Export Council Conference

presented by the California Inland Empire District Export Council

www.deconference.com

October 15– 18, 2008

Wyndham Hotel, Palm Springs, California

About the National DEC Conference: The National District Export Council Conference is the premier forum for exporting and international trade, that brings together senior US Department of Commerce, US Trade Representative, Diplomats, CEOs and other leaders to discuss issues and share knowledge to promote US exports.

Conference Details

- 3 days of presentations from top national experts
- Networking and Issue forums
- Seminars & updates on International Trade Regulations
- Learn about business opportunities in emerging sectors/countries
- Golf, Casino Gaming and other entertainment—in the heart of Palm Springs!
- Meet with fellow District Export Council professionals from around the United States

Accommodations provided by Wyndham Palm Springs— a premier resort within walking distance of Palm Springs world-famous shopping, art and entertainment center and only minutes to championship golfing, casinos, the Aerial Tram and botanical gardens.

THEME “Travel & Trade—Redefining Exports and Imports”

Invited Keynote speakers include— Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger and U.S. Trade Representative, Ambassador Susan Schwab, will kick off the conference in California—the world’s eighth largest economy, featuring discussions on export opportunities and policies for small enterprises, environmental technologies, alternative energy, emerging markets, local and regional export models and much more. Don’t miss this opportunity to meet with over 400 professionals involved in international trade!

Sponsored by:

REGISTER EARLY FOR DISCOUNTED RATE

AT www.deconference.com

Early registration through July 1, 2008; $350 for full conference, one day registration $125.

General Inquiries should be directed to:

Luisa Stowe

Luisas@ciedec.org

Tel: (909) 466-4136

For Sponsorship Opportunities, contact:

Tim Murphy at tim@ciedec.org