

AERO EXPO 2009 December 3-5 The Fairmont Acapulco Princess Hotel, Mexico

The U.S. Commercial Service in Mexico City is pleased to announce the U.S. Pavilion at AERO EXPO 2009 in Acapulco, Mexico, to be held on December 3-5, 2009 at The Fairmont Acapulco Princess Hotel.

The aerospace industry in Mexico has been one of the most dynamic sectors in the last few years. Some key international firms already have a presence in the market, such as Bombardier, Labinal, Aernnova and Goodrich. Mexico has also developed several infrastructure projects for airport development and airport expansion, which will sustain the growth of the aviation industry over the next years.

AERO EXPO 2009 is Mexico's largest aviation and aerospace trade show. As a biennial event, 2009 will be its seventh edition. In 2007, the show generated more than 8,000 visitors and over 150 foreign and local exhibitors. Companies interested in the Mexican aviation market have a great opportunity to take advantage of the growing business possibilities in this sector. Aircraft parts and spare parts, aviation services (including overhaul services), airport systems, airport ground equipment are some of the most attractive market segments for U.S. companies. Join us to meet the Mexican aviation community face-to-face and explore strategic alliances with them during the three day exhibition!

The price for U.S. companies to participate in the U.S. Pavilion is US$3,600 (taxes included), for a nine square meter exhibit space including furniture.

The high visibility and excellent location of the U.S. Pavilion are difficult to beat! The eight exhibition spaces include a variety of benefits in addition to the standard booth package:

- ✓ Exhibiting space of nine square meters including basic services (furniture, Pavilion design and your company's product descriptions in the trade show directory).
- ✓ Business briefing on key business practices in Mexico.
- ✓ Business reception with special industry guests and government officials (TBC)
- ✓ Presentation time slots during the AERO EXPO 2009 Conference Program on trade show floor.
- ✓ Webinar and on-line promotion.
- ✓ Support during trade show hours, and
- ✓ One double room for two nights at the Fairmont Acapulco Princess!!!
