

Samuel S. Moore
V. P. and Group Head International Trade Finance
Fifth Third Bank

Samuel S. Moore is the Vice President and Group Head of International Trade Finance for Fifth Third Bank, and has nearly 20 years experience in banking, international risk management, and international financing, working with companies and financial institutions of all sizes and regions of the world. Sam earned his Bachelor's degree in Public and Environmental Affairs from Indiana University and a Masters degree in Diplomacy and International Commerce from the University of Kentucky. A native of Lexington, Kentucky Sam currently lives in Columbus, Ohio with his wife and two teenage sons.