Briefing on Opportunities in Panama with Senior Commercial Officer Nicholas Kuchova

Please join Nicholas Kuchova, Senior Commercial Officer in Panama, for an overview of the business opportunities in Panama. The United States is Panama's most important trading partner, with about 30% of the import market, and U.S. products enjoy a high degree of acceptance in Panama. U.S. goods and services enjoy a reputation for high quality and are highly competitive. Panama boasts the highest per capita GDP in the region.

Leading sectors for U.S. exports and investment are wholesaling/warehousing, building products, travel & tourism, telecommunications, computers & peripherals, electric power systems, air conditioning and refrigeration, safety and security equipment, and materials handling equipment.

In addition, one-on-one appointments are available. Please contact the Commercial Service-Kansas City office for more details.
