Service: The firm is a broad-based commercial and business practice, acting primarily for multinational corporations conducting operations in Thailand. Many client relationships begin with a potential investor's initial enquiries about the legal and tax aspects of doing business in Thailand and continue through the development and conduct of a project or venture. The firm also advises financial institutions and borrowers on project financing and takes an active role in assisting clients in contract and concession negotiations with Thai government entities. Vickery & Worachai Ltd handles merger, acquisition, reorganization, restructuring and civil litigation. It is a member of the International Lawyers' Group, with member firms that practice independently in 39 countries.
